SMITH ELECTED IN LOUISVILLE

The election yesterday went off quietly, and without any disturbances at the polls, so far as we have heard. There was considerable hustling in the various precincts by the Republicans (who officially had no opposition) in an effort to offset the votes of the good people who believe in a fair deal, and who wrote in the names of three of the Democratic nominees. It is conceded by everyone that had the Democrats succeeded in getting on the ballot after having been denied the right by the County Clerk, they would have elected the ticket from top to bottom.

The race is over! Our candidates Messrs. Robertson, Bennett and Shults—with whom the Democrats kept the Republicans on the jump—go down in defeat, but not in disgrace, inasmuch as it was necessary for every one who voted for them to write their names in the ballot. When the fact is considered that the Democrats had only two days in which to educate the people to a new way of voting, the number of votes received by the three men whose names had to be written on the ballot is evidence of just what the fair-minded people of Ohio county think of the tactics of the local Republican bunch in leaving the Democratic nominees off.

Prof. Shults polled more than 2,500 votes, while Robertson and Bennett received something like 2,000 votes each.

A message last night from Owens stated that George W. Biles was elected Sheriff and C. W. Wells County Judge on the Republican ticket in Daviess county.

Geo. Weissinger Smith, Republican nominee for Mayor of Louisville, won over C. J. Cronan, Democratic nominee.

McKENNEY—FERGUSON.

The marriage of S. F. Ferguson, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Ella Hudson McKenney, of Beaver Dam, Ky., was solemnized at 11 o'clock on Saturday, Oct. 27th, in the red parlor of the Seelbach, at Louisville, Ky., Dr. S. J. Thompson of Crescent Hill Methodist church, officiating. Mr. Ralph V. Davison, of Henderson, was best man to the groom, and Miss Winnie Davis Simmerman, of Hartford, maid of honor.

A musical program was rendered by Miss Phoebe McKenney before the wedding, and continued during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Hudson, of Omaha, Neb., wore a tailored suit of brown velvet trimmed in seal, with brown velvet hat, trimmed with a bird of paradise. She wore a beautiful necklace of brown camos mounted in silver. Her corsage bouquet was of Russell roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Simmerman wore a suit of brown plush with hat to match. Mrs. Hudson was gowned in gray broad-clothed satin.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson left for an extensive trip through the South. The guests included:

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. McKenney, parents of the bride, Miss Ruth Gray, of Beaver Dam; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Simmerman and Miss Winnie Davis Simmerman, Hartford; Mr. Ralph Davison, Henderson; Mrs. J. M. Hudson, Omaha, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. K. J. McKenney and family, Louisville; Dr. and Mrs. E. B. McKenney and Mrs. Horace Sanderson, Louisville.

HAS HAND WRITTEN BIBLE.

Montreal, Canada.—Hugh Russell, of Notre Dame de Grace, is the reverent possessor of what is one of the most wonderful books in the world. It is a copy of the Bible written entirely in his own hand, as now bound, is not larger in size than the old style family Bible. It is beautifully written, too, bearing evidence in every word of an infinite patience and reverence, recalling the work of a medieval monk. It is certainly a wonderful piece of calligraphy throughout.

Mr. Russell is very modest about his achievement. "No, I am not a minister," he said. "I am only an ordinary commercial traveler—a knight of the road—but I was brought up by godly parents, both of them living still in Montreal, and I have love for the Book of Books."

"People should turn to the Bible today, and maybe my work may help a little bit in that direction. Yes, it is a sadly neglected book and some steps should be taken to have more attention paid to the Book of Books, in which this great conflict is assuredly foretold."

Mr. Russell, who is a Presbyterian Scotsman, began his work in 1894 and finished it on St. Andrew's day, November 30, 1916.

The work was done in odd moments of leisure, although more than half of it was done since the present war began.

"It is written in what Mr. Russell himself calls 'a peculiar handwriting, almost half printing.' It is perfectly legible, and, says Mr. Russell, 'without making any boast, I would be willing, if I had money, to offer $100 for every error or omission anyone could find in it.' There are altogether 1,987 pages, the New Testament taking up 471 of these. There are double columns on each page. It was written in sections of twenty-four pages each."

PRISON TERMS FOR OBSTRUCTORS

German Socialists Are Given
Sentences and Heavily Fined.

Sioux City, S. D., Nov. 3.—Prison sentences ranging from one year and a day to two years were imposed on twenty-six German Socialists, convicted here last week for conspiring to obstruct the selective draft, in Federal Court today by Judge Youmans.

Fines ranging from $300 to $1,000 also were assessed against the men. August Friedrich, alleged leader of the conspiracy, was fined $1,000 and sentenced to five years in prison. Motions for a new trial were denied. The men will be sent to the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

TEN THOUSAND

Stenographers Wanted by the Government.

(Special to The Herald.)
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 6.—Hon. John A. McIlhenny, president of the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., recently wrote to Draughon's College, Nashville, urging that College to help the United States Government to secure more stenographers, both men and women, the Government now being in need of ten thousand stenographers and many bookkeepers, at salaries ranging from one thousand dollars to twelve hundred dollars a year to begin on.

In his letter, Mr. McIlhenny urges young men and young women who are not trained for Government office positions to begin now to take the necessary training, as the prospect is that the demand will continue indefinitely.

Draughon's Nashville College is now receiving from business men more than one hundred calls a month for bookkeepers and stenographers. To show its patriotism, Draughon's Nashville College is offering special terms to all who desire to prepare, at college or by mail, for these good positions.

FIRST WOMAN TO CAST VOTE IN BARTLETT'S PRECINCT

Miss Iva Ambrose was the first woman to cast her vote in Bartlett's precinct. Miss Ambrose, upon leaving the polls, remarked: "I only regret that I can't stamp UN-DETER the rooster."

Mrs. John Hamilton was also the first woman to cast a vote in Beda precinct.

GRILLED ON AISNE FRONT, HUNS RETIRE

Germans Face Italians On Tagliamento River But Unable To Cross.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Germans have retreated from points along the historic Chemin-des-Dames sector on the Aisne front in France, where for several months the French troops of Gen. Petain had been keeping them sharply to task.

Just where the retrograde movement took place and how far it extends can not yet be told, as the German official communication announcing it merely says that the Teutons, "unnoticed and undisturbed by the enemy," systematically withdrew their lines from the hilly front in this region. The entire line to the north of the Aisne, where the Germans were last reported as facing the French in undulating in character from the Soissons sector eastward to the vicinity of Craonne, and therefore, it is impossible, from the rather terse acknowledgment of withdrawal to delimit the train which has been given up.

Fall Back On Laon.
Nevertheless it seems apparent that the Germans, tired of the terrible ordeal they had been forced to undergo for sometime from the French artillery and violent infantry attacks, have decided to fall back upon Laon, capital of the Department of the Department of the Aisne, which with its network of railways has been the quest of the French. It is possible, and seemingly probable, that the withdrawal of the German forces in the turn of the battle line in this region running northward to St. Quentin, if, indeed it does not affect the German positions as far north as Arras.

DR. W. GODFREY HUNTER DIES IN LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3.—Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, seventy-six years old, former member of congress from the Third and Eleventh districts of Kentucky, and ex-minister to Guatemala, died at 4 o'clock this morning at the Deaconess hospital, where he was removed last Monday from his apartments in the Louisville Old Inn hotel.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the undertaking establishment of John Maas, Floyd street and Broadway. Burial will be in Cave Hill. The pallbearers will be Col. J. T. Gathright, S. A. Anderson, M. O. Curd, George D. Todd, E. L. Hodgkins, Col. George W. Long.

To the older members of the Republican party the death of Dr. Hunter will cause wide regret. He was directly in the center of the political spotlight for many years.

HEN, 19 YEARS OLD, STILL LAYING

Fifteen years ago Adam Stouffel, of Findlay, O., purchased a Plymouth Rock hen, and now the hen, at the age of nineteen years, is laying eggs with the rest of his flock, and there are no indications that she is going to quit.

LETTER POSTAGE 3 CENTS

Under the new tax law beginning Friday, November 2, 1917, all letters must bear 3 cents postage (each ounce) instead of 2 cents, as in the past; except "drop" or local letters, that is letters for delivery at the post-office or on rural routes out of the office at which the letters are dropped or mailed, these being 2 cents. Postcards will require 2 cents instead of 1 cent as in the past.

Soldier Boys' Tobacco Fund

WHEN our boys are at the front, in the trenches fighting our battles, we should be only too glad to make any sacrifice for their comfort and welfare. It is just as natural for soldiers, when on the march or on the firing line to want to smoke as it is for a duck to take to water, and by a small donation from each of our readers to the Soldiers' Tobacco Fund would add untold joy and pleasure to our laddies on the European battlefields. Two good ladies

THRILLING TALES OF THE TRENCHES TOLD

The Americans Accounted For More Than One German Sniper.

With the American Army in France.—Some of the American soldiers who have been relieved after service in the trenches had thrilling stories to tell on returning to the billets. On clear days, especially, German snipers became active. Bullets went singing harmlessly overhead. American infantry were told to attend to any sniper who became active, and more than one of them will snipe Americans no more.

This game of sniping the sniper was highly popular. The only complaint heard today was that there was not enough rifle shooting to satisfy the infantrymen. Several of the soldiers said they went out to fight but did not get enough. There is no scarcity of expert riflemen when a sniper starts in.

A colonel had an exciting experience when the Germans nearly got the range of an observation post in which he and his aide were. They lost no time in taking temporary cover.

The artillery on both sides was rather more active during the last days in which the first contingent of Americans was in the trenches. The Germans shelled the back areas and approaches, putting shrapnel and high explosive shells in the direction of the trenches and battery positions. Aside from living up things for a while, nothing was accomplished by the enemy.

The infantry in one section had quite a lively time for two nights. The Germans, thinking a hostile patrol was near them, opened fire with their rifles at the point where the opposing trenches are nearest. The Americans let the Germans fire for a time, and then they themselves began to fire.

Several German airplanes which flew over the trenches were targets for rifles and machine gun.

The morale of the Americans is distinctly pleasing to the French. The troops marched out of the trenches in the dark, their wet and muddy clothes clinging to them. As soon as they were out of hearing of the Germans the men swung along whistling or singing.

Officers of all the groups commented on the remarkably small amount of sickness which developed. There are some bad colds, but as far as reported there are less than half a dozen cases, including "trench foot" and pneumonia. An officer said the splendid physical condition of the men was responsible for this showing.

The battalions sent in to relieve the men who have just left the trenches found the ground frozen when they came up. The sector remains normal, according to the latest reports available.

FREAK POTATO.

Mr. Alvin Ross, of Centertown, Route 1, brought to The Herald office Saturday a potato that bordered on the freak. It weighed 5 pounds and 2 ounces, and had a main body on which six good-sized potatoes grew. It is about the biggest and most freakish potato we have ever seen.

Mr. Ross also brought with him a red, white and blue ear of corn—that had grains with the three distinct colors on it—which measured 12½ inches long and had 13 rows of 63 grains each—884 grains in all.

This is more evidence that "Old Mother Nature" is doing her part toward producing the stuff to feed our boys who are to do the fighting for us.

CAPITAL STOCK OF $200,000 FOR NEW COMPANY

Green River Leaf Tobacco Company Is Organized by Well Known Men.

The Green River Leaf Tobacco Company, composed of J. M. Vaughan, R. E. O'Flynn & Son, G. O. Tuck & Co., and J. M. Buckner, is to be established here. The two last named parties are Louisville business men, whose big tobacco interests throughout the country, will be combined with those of J. M. Vaughan and R. E. O'Flynn & Son, making one of the strongest organizations for buying and handling tobacco ever effected here.

The O'Flynn factory has been taken over by the new company, and in addition to this property another large plant adjoining the O'Flynn factory is now being rushed to completion. Two drying machines, each 170 feet long, with latest improvements, together with hydraulic presses and lifts and other necessary machinery are being installed.

The comfort and care of employees is not being overlooked in equipping the plants. Dressing rooms, emergency rooms for sick or injured and other conveniences modern and sanitary will be added for greater comfort and efficiency.

The company will control a large amount of business, operating factories throughout the Green River district and other sections over the State besides Owensboro.

J. M. Vaughan has been named president, R. E. O'Flynn, Jr., first vice president; G. O. Tuck, second vice president; Jay O'Flynn, secretary and treasurer.

FLIES 1,023 MILES ON AN ERRAND OF MERCY

Naval Airman Takes Seaman From Norfolk to Bedside Of Dying Mother.

Lieut. Hanson McCann, N. S. N., is in Paducah, resting after an air journey of 1,023 miles from Norfolk, Va., to Du Quoin, Ill., in which he played the part of an angel of mercy.

He left the Norfolk navy yard Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock with Charles Allen, a seaman, as passenger, and made the flight to Du Quoin with but one stop, made at Cincinnati to obtain a fresh supply of fuel. The flight took a little more than ten hours.

His journey was made to enable Allen to reach the bedside of his dying mother. It was a trip no money could have bought, but officers at the navy yard touched by Allen's anxiety to reach his mother before she died, commissioned Allen to make the trip.

As soon as some minor repairs to his big machine is completed at Du Quoin, Lieut. McCann will make the return flight to Norfolk.

GREAT DAY AT LOCAL METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday last was a record day at the Methodist church. The crowd at the morning service was all that could be wished. The pastor, Rev. A. D. Litchfield, chose for his subject, "Christ Satisfying the Need of Every Human Heart." The expression on the lips of all was highly commendatory.

The evening service was the Quodri-Centennial of the Lutheran Reformation and was fully illustrated with many beautiful scenes from the life of one of the world's greatest characters. The house at the evening service was packed. All in all it was a great day in Hartford church circles.

AN ANCIENT EAR OF CORN.

Mr. V. R. Johnson, of this place, brought us in a portion of an ear of red corn that is 39 years old. In the spring of 1878 his father, Mr. Nathan Johnson, planted his corn, and just before gathering it in the fall died. Out of this corn he had selected and put away a red ear for the following spring planting. Upon the old gentleman's death the good wife put the red ear away as a treasure. Upon her death her daughter, Mrs. Belle Forrest, of Coral Hill, claimed the relic, and now has the remaining half of the red ear of corn at her home. The other half can be seen at the Times office.—Glasgow Times.

THE HARTFORD HERALD—41 yr.

ENTIRE REGIMENT QUARANTINED

Boys Will Be Kept Out Of City For More Than Month.

DRAFT MEN WILL BE IN CAMP

By December 1, Says Provost Marshal General Crowder.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 5.—All the Kentucky draft men will be in camp before December 1. Provost Marshal General Crowder in a communication to Adjutant General J. Tandy Ellis stated that he expects to order all the remaining draft men to the cantonment during November. No order for them to report, however, has been received.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Outbreak of new cases of measles caused the commanding officers at Camp Zachary Taylor to place the entire 335th regiment under quarantine today and it will be two weeks at the least before the Owensboro, Louisville and other Kentucky boys in that organization get a chance to leave camp.

In order not to interfere with the work of the national army recruits in the regiment, work will be carried on among the men not affected with disease exactly as usual, but they will not be allowed to partake in any of the activities with other men in the camp.

Many of the men of the 336th have been under quarantine for two weeks or more and the new order against leave will keep them away from the city for more than a month.

The drafted men from Ohio county as members of the 336th Infantry, and all are in the quarantine.

KENTUCKY LIBRARY WAR COUNCIL

The Kentucky Library War Council is making a supreme effort to procure and place in the hands of the soldier boys in Camp Zachary Taylor a library of good and wholesome books and magazines for the entertainment and instruction of the soldier boys in training. Fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, wives, sweethearts and friends who see this will doubtless be constrained to donate liberally towards this blessing to the boys in camp.

There will be hundreds of men and boys entertained and instructed by this means and if you have no loved ones there remember some one else has and you may have some-time and the time to act is NOW. The following donations have already been received by the committee:

|------------------------------------|----------|
| Hartford Ladies' Club, Books | $ 75.00 |
| Hartford Graded School | 17.00 |
| Hartford Methodist Sunday School | 3.48 |
| Beaver Dam Graded School, Books | 32.78 |
| Beaver Dam Graded School | 18.00 |
| M. A. Fogle | 1.00 |
| Rockport Lodge No. 312, F. & A. M. | 2.00 |
| Dundee Methodist Sunday School | 4.08 |
| Bell's Run Baptist church | 9.75 |
| J. C. Her, Books | 25.00 |

Total $488.01

It is the earnest desire of all that Ohio county's part of the fund necessary—$575—he raised as soon as possible that the good work may begin. The cash and books shown above will be sent at once to the camp and all the schools, Sunday Schools, churches, lodges as well as individuals in Ohio county will respond promptly and liberally and send their donations in cash or good books and magazines to the treasurer, Miss Margaret Marks, Hartford.

Due credit will be given the donors in these columns and the thanks and blessings of many homesick soldier boys will be your reward.

JNO. B. WILSON,
Director for Ohio County.

DIED OF DIPHTHERIA.

Hazel Amabel, the three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary Stalsworth, near town, died Friday of diphtheria, and was buried Saturday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. D. Litchfield.

Writes of Florida

St. Petersburg, Fla.
The Hartford Herald,
Hartford, Ky.

Pineallas county, Fla., is situated on the peninsula between the Gulf of Mexico and Tampa Bay. Clearwater is the county seat. They are preparing to build an up-to-date court house. The cornerstone is to be laid at an early date by the Masons. The Grand Master of the State is to be present. There is several prosperous towns in the county. St. Petersburg perhaps is the largest. Largo, Tarpon Springs, South-land, Passagrell and Divista are flourishing towns in the county. St. Petersburg is located on Tampa Bay, 27 miles south of Tampa. There is about ten thousand permanent inhabitants, and the white population is something like fifty thousand. Central avenue is about 7 miles long, and is paved with brick and concrete the whole length; it has a street car line, two auto tracks and sidewalks. At the western end is situated the town of Divista and the jungle. The jungle is a very popular resort for picnickers. It is a dense growth of sub-tropical forest, and is located immediately on the Boca Ceiga Bay. There is a wharf there with boats to cross out into the Gulf. Many take this route for fishing for deep sea fish, out at the guher banks several miles out in the Gulf.

Pineallas county is a prohibition county, and this is one place where prohibition prohibits—they simply do not allow any liquor to be sold or given away. When a fellow wants to go on a "whiz" he has to migrate. The Grand Lodge of Masons have determined to build an Orphan's and Widow's Home for the State, and St. Petersburg has been chosen for the location. The land has been purchased and building is to be started at once. As is usual, a Kentuckian is one of the leading men in this enterprise. There is quite a lot of the bluegrass and pennyroyal people in this town, and they are usually at the head of their calling—growers, stockmen, and all the professions are represented here by old Kentucky, and last, but not least, is the inevitable politician—the old boys got there sure. They seem to get talk all corners.

There is considerable game in this vicinity, and the game laws are strictly enforced. Ours are gentle and quite plentiful.

St. Petersburg is building up fast—there are new houses going up on almost every square. Tourists are coming in on every train and steamer. This is one a live town.

The citrus crop is a little short, but most of it is contracted for at good prices. The farmers are pushing their lemons and oranges. One scribe had put out a small garden and it was growing fine, but a heavy rain fell—the flood came and the vegetables disappeared, but we have not entirely given up the fight. Will replant and see what comes of it.

It does seem strange, while you people are gathering in the crops and storing coal, closing out the season's work preparing for a hard winter with nothing to do except to sit around a roaring fire, and occasionally going to the stores, where huge red hot heaters can be found, to while away a few monotonous hours, the people here are straining every nerve to get a crop in the ground.

Randolph Townsend Wedding, an Ohio county man, is located here. He sure has landed with both feet, and is now at the head of a $50,000 nursery at a good salary—is a leading landscape architect, and is an authority on plants and shrubs. He has one of the best libraries on botany in the State, and his wife is an expert botanist. He owns a 10-acre lot of land near the city limits and has it fairly well improved. The land—every inch of it—is first-class and is now worth much more than it cost him. He has the Kentucky spirit—it down fine, and the energy and nerve to carry things with a high hand. He has many kinds of plants and flowers; in fact almost all the varieties that are of a sub-tropical growth. I saw a sample of what is said to be the identical kind of bull-rush that Moses was found in on the river Nile, and I ate a pomegranate that is said to be the same that the Scriptures noted. Japan persimmons are produced here and they are simply fine.

The city has a dock that is 100 feet wide and one-fourth of a mile long, reaching out into the bay to deep water, and it is a great place to fish. When the tide is right the wharf is lined with fishermen. Sea going vessels land at this wharf, as well as the local steamers plying between Tampa and points on the Manatee river.

Dogs do not thrive here, but I met one on the street that was a monster. He was about two feet high and 5 feet long; weighed about 125 pounds. The native hog is a monstrosity—much more than our old sang diggers, but the farmers are improving their hogs by importing from northern States—principally from Kentucky.

The people are very pleasant here—you never meet a stranger—all seem to think every one he meets is a friend, and they never fail to give a civil answer to any question you may see proper to ask. You need not hesitate to speak to any one on the street—they seem to think everybody is entitled to decent treatment and respect.

Fort Dade is located at the entrance of Tampa Bay, and is now fitted up on a war footing, having the latest improved guns and artillerymen trained to date. They admitted citizens to the fort one day recently, and the reports from there were very encouraging as to the preparedness of Uncle Sam for any emergency. This city was enthusiastic for second Liberty Bond, and subscribed their full quota. The Red Cross is doing a big work here, and the people of this section is a patriotic bunch—numbers of the young men are in the camps training for duty abroad.

A few days ago the "Holy Rollers" were holding a meeting on Manatee river and one of the members—Miss Mary Murray, about 18 years old, took up a large diamond-back rattlesnake and allowed it to coil around her body and neck, saying it would not bite her, or if it did it would not hurt her, she was so full of holiness. She put the snake away and the services went on, but later she was directed by the preacher to take the snake up again; she did so but his snakeship resented the familiarity and struck the lady on the arm once. This happened about midday, and at five p. m. she died. Faith or holiness failed this time. The county officials are investigating the matter, but have not reported so far as I know.

There is a creek running through the city of the St. Petersburg, and the other day while it was flooded by heavy rains, several negro children were playing along the banks. One little fellow tumbled in and was carried away—the rest of the little "nigs" went on with their play, scarcely taking any notice of the little fellow who was being drowned. After awhile they were called in by their parents, and being asked about the missing child, they said that he had fallen in the creek and they forgot to tell about it.

DIDN'T APPRECIATE WHISTLER'S WIT

The White House, Chelston, once the home of Whistler, was occupied by Harry Quilter immediately after it was vacated by Whistler, and the artist never forgave himself for it. "Over the doorway of the White House," writes Quilter, "at the time when it passed into my hands, was an inscription, possibly irrelevant, but decidedly amusing, which had been painted up by Mr. Whistler himself, mainly for the purpose of annoying his friend and architect, E. W. Goodwin: 'Except the Lord build the house they labour but in vain that build it. E. W. Goodwin, P. S. A., built this one.' This pearl of wit I had chipped off the stone."

Macedonian Farmer Acting as Spy For Germans, Is Caught In French Camp

German money has cost the lives of many farmers of Macedonia, who have become spies for small considerations in many cases. These unwary and simple peasants have undertaken to learn French military secrets by going to the camps as starving and homeless farmers. Few have been able to carry out their plans, for the French have made friends with the people in the territory, and as the spies have come into their camps they have been held. Here is one of them after his capture. He is being searched. A long, sharp knife has been found on him. He, like others, paid the penalty for being a spy.

SCHOONER LADEN WITH BULLION BLOWN TO SEA

Nome, Alaska.—The power schooner White Bear, carrying a crew of three, one passenger and a shipment of bullion, was blown to sea by a north gale Sunday while on her way from Solomon to Nome, and has not been heard from. A committee of Nome citizens set out through the drifting ice on a tug in an effort to find the schooner.

The White Bear carried no extra fuel and food. The weather over the Behring Sea is intensely cold, and it is believed here that all aboard have been lost. The tug Genevieve was seized by citizens after her owners had refused permission to the captain of the coast guard crew to allow him to take the tug to sea. Last night a mass meeting of citizens was held at which money was subscribed to outfit the Genevieve.

CHILD MARRIAGES IN ENGLAND

Child marriages were common enough in England a century or two ago. Wards of the crown in particular were frequently married before they reached their teens. Some children were married at the age of five, while from nine to twelve was considered quite a marriageable age for girls. Little Moll Villiers, daughter of the Duke of Buckingham, was not merely a wife, but a widow, at the age of nine, and there are descriptions of her romping in the garden and climbing cherry trees in her widow's veil.

FRUGALITY.

Be sure to live within compass; borrow not, neither be beholden to any. Ruin not yourself by kindness to others for that exceeds the due bounds of friendship, neither will a true friend expect it. Let your industry and your parsimony go no further than for a sufficiency for life, and to make a provision for your children if the Lord gives you any. I charge you help the poor and needy. Let the Lord have a voluntary share of your income, for the good of the poor, remembering that he that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord.

WILL YOU HELP?

For the past five years Mr. B. C. Martin and a few faithful friends have been trying to establish a workshop for the adult blind in Louisville, Ky. They have succeeded in giving comfort to several of these unfortunate, and by so doing have demonstrated beyond a doubt the humaneness and the practicability of this noble work.

Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Wisconsin and many western States have provided very liberally for this work through State and municipal appropriations and contributions and benevolence by individuals.

Shall Kentucky let her 1,500 blind adults remain in darkness and loneliness, eking out a miserable existence on a poor farm or begging on the street corners?

The good people of Kentucky have lately been very quick and willing to respond to worthy enterprises, but very few think of the blind. What could be more noble or render greater good than helping work of this kind?

Close your eyes for a moment and think "what would I do if I were blind?"

What is to become of our soldiers if they meet this fate so many in Europe have met, a fate which many say is worse than death?

Will you help with donations, bequests, political influence or in any way that you can to establish and maintain this workshop and school in the United States for Kentucky's Adult Blind?

For further information address: SUSAN B. MERWIN, Supt. PROF. C. B. MARTIN, Ky. School for the Blind, Louisville, Ky.

ROADS RULE THE WORLD

(Anonymous)

Roads rule the world—not kings nor conquerors, not courts nor constables, not ships nor soldiers. The road is the only royal line in a democracy, the only legislature that never changes, the only court that never sleeps, the only army that never quits, the first aid to the redemption of any nation, the exodus from stagnation in any society, the call from savagery in any tribe, the high priest of prosperity after the order of Malchisedek without beginning of days or end of life. The road is empire in every war, and when the new way is made it simply pushed on its great campaign of help, hope, brotherhood, efficiency and peace.

TWO HELD SUSPECTED OF STARTING BALTIMORE FIRE

Destruction of Piers Will Not Stop B. & O. Handling Freight.

Baltimore, Md.—Two men suspected of having a hand in the disastrous fire which visited the Baltimore & Ohio railroad terminals here were arrested and grilling in the office of the Department of Justice. Special Agent Harris, of the Department of Justice, said the names of the men would not be made public at present. One of the men is a saloonkeeper of the section where the fire occurred. It was alleged two stevedores heard him say: "We are going to get the elevator next." When arrested he was a Russian Pole, but it later developed that he is a native of Germany, but naturalized. The other suspect was reported to have been in the vicinity of the piers yesterday in a motorboat.

All the men have been accounted for except Michael J. Hand, a tally clerk on the piers, and Eustace Broadway, chief naval gunner on a British steamer which caught fire and was badly damaged. Several stevedores also are unaccounted for, but are believed to have been saved when they leaped from the ship to the water.

The Baltimore & Ohio's loss was estimated to-night by Vice President Thompson at $4,000,000. He said the destruction of piers 8 and 9 would not stop the road's business at Locust Point, and that freight would be accepted as usual. Reconstruction would begin at once, he said, and contract for material already having been awarded. Insurance covered the railroad's loss.

The damage to the steamer and its cargo is estimated at $500,000, which $500,000 loss is thought to have been sustained by the Furness Withy Steamship Company, which used the piers for its terminals. Among the goods destroyed were 7000 cases of imported liquors 150 casks of flour, fifty casks of tobacco and 70,000 bales of wood pulp.

Charles P. Monto, of the Bureau of Mines, Washington, came here today to investigate reports that bombs figured in the explosion at the fire.

A heavy pall of smoke which hung over the harbor made the river dangerous for traffic. A steamer from Philadelphia rammed the stern of the British steamer which was afire, but neither ship was much by the impact.

YOU SHOULD CONSERVE THE FARM MACHINERY

Put your farm machinery in sheds and fix it up in tip-top shape this winter. The shed will cost some more than it did before, but the advance in building materials generally has not been nearly as great as has that on machinery.

Second-hand machinery will be worth money from now on. Saving the paint on it will make it sell better. Look the old corn binder over and see if new parts will not fix it up before buying a new one. If the grain binder bothered this fall, give a good overhauling at the first opportunity, and see what new parts it needs. Send for these parts and repair it. It will pay.

Farm machinery will not only raise higher in price but is very apt to be scarce for the next several years. The curtailing of the iron and steel now used in the manufacture of farm machinery is sure to come, and some preliminary reports state that the amount allotted to this purpose will be cut as low as one-half the amount used last year. In the past steel and formed a habit of wasting it. We must conserve it now. It is a business proposition and a patriotic duty as well.

FALL CARE OF VEGETABLES.

Do not expect to keep vegetables successfully in an unpartitioned cellar containing a furnace.

If no cave or portion of the cellar is available, dig a trench as long as desired and about a foot deep. Providing proper drainage is maintained, cabbage, potatoes, celery, carrots, beets, in fact all of the root crops, may be stored in it. For storing apples the hole should be deeper, and usually the apples are protected by being surrounded by straw before soil is placed on them. The outer leaves of the cabbages should not be removed, and the tops should head downward. Beets, carrots and salsify may be buried as soon as the tops are frozen. Celery may be placed in the trench when mature to be bleached and later stored where it will not freeze. Parsnips may be left unpulled, but if buried in a trench may be more easily handled. Many persons believe that the flavor of the parsnip is improved by being allowed to freeze before burying.

On Way To 'Baptism of Fire,' Russian Recruits Attend Mass on Transport at Sea

Holy Mass on board a warship is not an uncommon sight in these war times, for in most countries religious observances are urged or permitted in every branch of the service. This unusual picture shows a Russian priest celebrating a Mass on the high seas on board a transport. The improvised altar is set up near a cannon at the stern of the vessel. Hundreds of young Russians on their way to the fighting front on transports receive religious instruction at these Masses, and between times the priests work among the men.

A SUNSET FANCY.

Tonight as I sat at my window While the west was all aglow With that strange and wonderful splendor That is fleeting as a dream, I thought that the hands of angels Had flung Heaven's canopy away, And I caught some glimpse of glory From the hills on the other side.

Is it not a comforting fancy This sunset thought of mine That always the gates of Heaven Swing open at day's decline— That those whose work is all ended From our earthly woes and ills May pass to the peace and gladness That crown the beautiful hills?

Perhaps while I sat there dreaming Of the gateway in the west Some weary ones were homeward To a long and endless rest— Went in through the sunset gateway To the city paved with gold, To dwell in the hills of Heaven, And be no longer old!

ANSWERS THE NATION'S CALL.

Herbert Hoover having designated the International Live Stock Exposition a "Food Training Camp," by this act directed this institution into the service of this country. "Food training" is the appeal of the food administration. It is the way of food, for the nation will be stronger, "Food training" is the appeal of the food administration. It is the way of food, for the nation will be stronger.

The International Live Stock Exposition, which will be held during the first week in December, will this year emphasize its mission. The Beautiful Gulf Coast

MOBILE, ALABAMA.
"Mother of Mystics."

Sol! "Here we Rest," according to the meaning of the word "Alabama." We are at a terminal of a delightful trip on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad.

The early explorers did well when they founded the French colonies, which were begun under the brothers de Bienville and d'Iberville.

Mobile lies at the mouth of the Mobile river, which is formed by the junction of the Alabama and Tombigbee rivers. Many products of the interior come down these rivers; cotton and lumber in large quantities is seen, and coal from further north.

Mobile harbor affords accommodation at her wharves for both commercial and tourist traffic. The city of Mobile is some thirty miles from the Gulf of Mexico and it is a delightful rail on the head winding entrance to this city—Mobile—which has a population of 75,000 souls.

From the water's edge there is a gradual rise of the land which leads to attractive hills and ravines, upon which are located beautiful southern homes—all and new—and the shell work is a boon to the automobile.

There are few cities in the world which possess so many beautiful spots that might be called "paradises." Some of them are Mobile, Alabama, the city of the future, the city of the past, the city of the present.

JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce
HON. J. W. HENSON, of Henderson, a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from the Second Appellate District subject to the action of the Democratic party.

EXPRESSIVE VOTE.

Although defeated, Bud Bennett,
Guy Robertson and Ozna Shults have reason for much consolation in the returns from most of the precincts in the county. Considering the fact that their names had to be written on every ballot cast for them, and only two days time in which to instruct their friends, it was the most remarkable race ever pulled off in this or any other county in Kentucky. Necessarily, there was much confusion and many votes lost by mistakes.

The splendid vote polled by these three Democratic candidates is a direct repudiation of the unfair scheme of the Court House clique. Besides, it shows the high degree of intelligence of the voters who stood so loyally for a square deal, and the extreme popularity of these three contestants. The expression of confidence coupled with defeat is more to be prized than the offices tainted as they are by the underhand methods of the gangsters who succeeded in forcing a lop-sided contest. Hats off to the game candidates and loyal Democrats of Ohio county.

To those manly, fair-minded Republicans who refused to stand for the raw deal handed out by the ring, we bow with respect.

DISFRANCHISING A PEOPLE.

The effort to disfranchise 3,000 or more voters of Ohio county, by a piece of petty trickery, is meeting indignant protests of honest men of all parties, not only in Ohio county, but in Owensboro and Daviess county and throughout Kentucky, where the facts have become known. And as the day of the election approaches, when there will be no election in Ohio county, simply a farce, the wrath of the people will grow.

Republican leaders, who have not hesitated to take advantage of every political means in the past to win elections, confess themselves amazed and mortified at this outrage, and do not hesitate to proclaim it, feeling the affair will be deeply hurtful to the Republican party.

Judge McKenzie Moss, a Republican, in a case from Allen county last Saturday, and in another from Butler county, Wednesday, quickly called down two Republican county clerks, who tried to out over tricks similar to this. In the Allen county and by unanimous vote, sustained Judge Moss.

Judge Stout a Democrat, two years ago at Frankfort, likewise decided an identical case in favor of a Republican candidate for congress, and the Democratic attorney general advised and urged it.

But in Ohio county, where the Republicans were in great fear of defeat there is to be no election next Tuesday. The voice of the people is to be throttled. They are to be suppressed in their rights as American citizens, just the same as if an army were on guard at the polls denying them at the point of bayonets their suffrage. This is foreign to our democratic form of government. It is a moral outrage upon civilization and common honesty.

There will surely be relief from this. The courts will surely eventually set aside the mockery of a protended election in Ohio county and man who has had a part in this contemptible trick, will get his just reward.—Owensboro Messenger.

COWARDLY COURSE.

The Democrats in Ohio county lost out through a strict construction of the law.

The law requires that candidates for county offices receiving the nomination in a primary election shall file with the county court clerk a certificate of nomination fifteen days before the general election in order the ballots. That provision of the law is mandatory and is applicable to Democrats and Republicans alike.

In the event nominees fail to file their certificates within the required time, the court of appeals, in affirming Judge Slack, holds that the county court clerk is not obliged to have their names printed upon the ballot.

It is unfortunate that the voters of Ohio county will be deprived of the privilege of expressing their choice for county officials because of an oversight on the part of Democratic nominees to technically comply with the law.

It would have been generous, if not just, on the part of County Clerk Blankenship to have caused the names of Democratic nominees to be printed upon the ballots; notwithstanding the highest court has said he was within his rights when he refused to do so.

It would have shown that he and his Republican associates were not afraid to measure swords with their Democratic adversaries.

But his course was a cowardly one and deserves the condemnation of those who admire a man of courage, one who would spurn an unfair advantage over a worthy antagonist.

Mr. Blankenship alone is responsible for the leaving of Democrats names off the Ohio county ballots.
It was not within the province of Judge Slack, who respected his oath of office, to grant the relief sought by Ohio county Democrats in this instance. The court of appeals, all of whom are Democrats but one,
have said so.

It must be comforting to Judge Slack to see that some of those, ignorant of the law, who started out to scoff and criticize him have ended by profusely complimenting and praising him.—Owensboro Inquirer.

The Republican in its last issue says "the election will soon be over and then...let us all return to the practice of brotherly love and enter into a covenant of charity and general good will to men." The election will soon be over? What election, pray tell? Strikes us that we had no election—every man that goes into office on the Republican ticket does so by default pure and simple—and not as the representative of the people, because were not about 3,000 voters of Ohio county disfranchised by the petty political trickery of the local Republican clique? Then as to that covenant of charity and general good will, we can't hardly expect the man who has been slugged to form a covenant of good will with the thug who has beaten him up.

It was real funny—yes, we might say ludicrous—to see the Republicans get a hostile on themselves every time the Democrats made a move during the last few days of the campaign. And this, too in the face of the fact that they had no opposition —the Democrats being left off the ballot. It is only evidence of the fact that the Republicans feared the wrath of an outraged people, and that the fair-minded citizens of Ohio county would exercise their rights regardless of the efforts of the Republican gangsters to disfranchise them.

When the Republican clique now in the saddle boast of a nominal majority of more than five hundred in the county, and at the same time have to resort to all sorts of spooks to prevent repudiation at the polls, they must realize that their rotten methods have become a stench in the nostrils of an outraged citizenship.

Even after they succeeded in keeping the Democrats off the ballot, it was necessary to give the S. O. S. and crack the party whip to keep the good people from turning, as they expressed it, to the Socialists in order to defeat the gang.

We'll bet a "nickel to a doughnut" that there never was a bunch of people so afraid that "right would prevail" as the Republicans were during the past few days. After having left the Democrats off the ballot, the local bunch of Republicans had to use every ounce of their energy, and do some "tall" scouting to prevent the voters of Ohio county from expressing their sentiments.

The Republican organ last week said that the Republican candidates and the party generally regret that the Democratic ticket did not go on the ballot. We believe the Republican party, as a whole, regret it, but as to the candidates and the local clique, nay! They wouldn't have had their legs off and spent their money as they did to put the Democrats off the ballot, had they regretted it. Such assertions are as the prattle of a babe.

The Ohio county Republicans, who pretended they weren't afraid of their Democratic opponents at the polls, to make their trick stick kept one of the highest-priced Owensboro lawyers working night and day, for four or five days, running back and forth to Frankfort twice, and sitting up all night at Owensboro and Central City. He finally returned panting like a lizard and all fagged out.
No, they weren't afraid at all.—Owensboro Messenger.

And, after all their petty political trickery, the Republicans were not permitted to walk deliberately up to the "pie counter" and help themselves without the indignation of a righteous people asserting itself, as was shown by the number of votes polled by the Democratic nominees who were left off the ballot.

Hurray for Rockport! Four years ago Blankenship carried the two Rockport precincts by 27 votes. Yesterday Guy Robertson carried them

5 IRISH POTATOES

WEIGH 5 POUNDS

The editor was last week presented with five Irish potatoes by Mr. A. V.
Rowan and son, R. N., of Route 7, that were just about the prettiest and largest we've seen. The potatoes weighed just one pound each, the five tipping the scales at five pounds.

Mr. Rowan says he raised the potatoes on third year ground, and that he has about 150 bushels of them.
He says he got 23 eating potatoes out of one hill.

MRS. JOSEPHINE PARK

Passed Away Sunday Afternoon
After Brief Illness—Buried
Monday.

After a brief illness of uremic poison and hypostatic pneumonia, Mrs. Josephine Park, widow of the late Jas. A. Park, died at her home on Washington street, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Park, one of the best known and well beloved women of the city and county, was born in Grayson county, and at the time of her death was 71 years, 7 months and 15 days old. She was before her marriage a Miss Craig.

Mrs. Park was the mother of 14 children, eleven of whom survive—seven boys and four girls. The sons are: John, Joe, Herbert, Sherman, Clinton, Willie and Estill. The daughters are, Mrs. Florence Allen, Mrs. Katie Paris, Miss Emma Park, who was at home with her mother,
and Mrs. J. B. Tappan, of Hartford.

She was a member of the Methodist church and after funeral services at Beulah church, Beda, conducted by Rev. Harper, assisted by Revs. A.
D. Litchfield, her remains were laid to rest in the burying ground there Monday afternoon, attended by a host of surviving relatives and friends.

MISS GRACE SHULTZ

ENTERTAINS

Miss Grace Shultz, of Shultztown, entertained a number of her friends
Wednesday evening with a Halloween party. Those present were:

Misses Maggie and Nellie Harrell,
Alice and Katie Elliott, Dossie Mc-Crocklin, Marguerite Taylor, Ethel
Robinson, Ruth and Anna Barnes,
Agnes and Altha Williams, Elizabeth
Moore, Bessie Alford, Mary Doolin,
Rosa and Florida Austin; Messrs.
David, James, Marshall and Frank Rames, Earl Plummer, Bryan and Robert Chinn, Derwood and Henry Nall Shultz, Jack Taylor, Henry and Elsie McCrocklin, Edmond and Rayburn Nannay and Rob Roy Williams.

Each guest wore a white mask bordered in black cats, bats and witches.

Games were played in the goblin's barn and the crowd marched to the tune of wild music, where they were entertained in the house by witch stories and fortunes under the pale light of each twinkling candle.

After prizes were given to those eating the apple off of string, bobbing for apples, sewing, &c., they were invited into the beautifully decorated dining room, lighted by pumpkins and small Japanese lanterns. Candy, cake and apples were served.

The hours were spent quite pleasantly and Miss Shultz proved to be a clever hostess.

Company No. 167, 42d division of the Royal Baking Powder

saves eggs in baking

In many recipes only half as many eggs are required, in some none at all, if an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder is used, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

Try the following recipes which also conserve white flour as urged by the government.

Corn Meal Griddle Cakes

1 1/2 cups corn meal
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon shortening
1 tablespoon molasses
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

NO EGGS
Boil corn meal in bowl with boiling water; add milk, molasses and shortening; add flour, salt and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Bake on hot greased griddle until brown.

(The Old Method called for 2 eggs)

Eggless, Milkless, Butterless Cake

1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup water
1 cup seeded raisins
3 ounces citron, cut fine
1/2 cup shortening
6 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Boil sugar, water, fruit, shortening, salt and spices together in saucepan 3 minutes. When cool, add flour and baking powder which have been sifted together. Mix well; bake in loaf pan in moderate oven about 45 minutes.

(The Old Method [Fruit Cake] called for 2 eggs)

Send for our new booklet "55 Ways to Save Eggs." Mailed free on request.

IDEAL THEATRE

BEAVER DAM, KY.

The heavy war tax so increases the cost of Moving Picture Films that we are unable to make expenses, hence we announce to our patrons that we will close. November is the best month of the year, with usually good roads and comfortable weather, giving those who have worked hard during the summer and fall an opportunity for enjoyable recreation before the bleak, rough weather and had roads of winter force them to remain at home; therefore we have felt it our duty to exert ourselves in giving you a series of the best entertainment that we can procure for this our last month.

NOVEMBER 8, 1917

JESSE L. LASKY Presents

BLANCHE SWEET

IN

"Those Without Sin"

This is one of the most thrilling Civil War dramas ever screened with a Southern girl the leading character. Many like it better than the "Crisis."

NOVEMBER 10, 1917

JESSE L. LASKY Presents

MARIE DORO

That most beautiful, charming star, in

"Castles For Two"

This is a clean Irish comedy drama enacted by a coterie of stars.

NOVEMBER 15, 1917

OLIVER MOROSCO Presents

KATHLYN WILLIAMS

IN

"Out Of The Wreck"

This is no fairy tale but a thrilling slice of real life. We should be glad that every man, woman and child in Ohio county see it, and will gladly admit any one free who hasn't the money to pay the admission. It will be a memory through life.

NOVEMBER 17, 1917

DANIEL FROHMAN Presents

PAULINE FREDERICK

In a picturization of Daudet's immortal

"Sapho"

You all know beautiful Pauline Frederick and have been charmed often by her productions on the screen, but in "SAPHO" where she plays the part of the butterfly woman who plays at love, fluttering from one heart to another, you see her at her best, and are brought face to face with results.

NOVEMBER 22, 1917

JESSE L. LASKY Presents

Wallace Reid and Myrtle Stedman

IN

"The Prison Without Walls"

This is a sensational, exciting drama in which the "Graft" of the "Men Higher Up" in prison management is portrayed and the like of the criminal and ex-convict brought clearly to view.

NOVEMBER 24, 1917

FAMOUS PLAYERS Present

JACK PICKFORD

IN

"The Dummy"

This is Jack Pickford's best, and portrays the kidnapping of a little child, and expert detectives work in its recovery. It is distinctly human and humorous in the extreme.

NOVEMBER 29, 1917

We will ring down the curtain and close our theater with

MARY PICKFORD

In that old and familiar but perhaps one of the most appreciated plays on stage or screen.

"Cinderella"

In addition to these 5-reel feature programs there will be exhibited on each Thursday evening an educational reel alone worth your time and the price of admission. On each Saturday evening there will be either a Black Diamond or a Kiever Comedy, that will thoroughly shake up the anatomy and loosen up the muscles of every one not paralyzed or petrified.

On Nov. 10, FATTY ARBUCKLE

In his very latest production

"Fatty in Coney Island"

Will drive every trace of sorrow, grouch and care, and put you in love with yourself, the world and life.

Entertainments will begin each evening promptly at 7:30 p. m.

Owing to the war tax the price of admission to all is 15c.
If not pleased with any entertainment your money refunded at the box office. No one within reach should miss any one of these the last and best exhibits.

Dr. C. R. Layton, of Rockport, this county, has been appointed as First Lieutenant in the Dental Reserve Corps. He is now waiting for the call. Dr. Layton is well up in his profession and will no doubt make Uncle Sam an efficient officer in this division.

Mr. A. P. King, of Owensboro, who was recently operated on for gall stones, and whose condition was at one time critical, is reported as much better, and if no complications arise, will soon be out. Mr. King is a brother of Dan and John King, of this city.

Rev. Samuel E. Harlan, pastor of the Christian church here, has just closed a very successful series of meetings at Union Grove, near Taffy. Rev. Harlan delivered some very able and forceful sermons to the people of the Taffy neighborhood, resulting in twenty additions to the church.

Some thief prized off the inside back shutters of Mr. C. A. Hudson's store Sunday night and made away with some cheese and lard. This is only one of the many times Mr. Hudson's store has been robbed the past few months, but he is preparing to see to it that his store is not so easily gotten into hereafter.

Editor John H. Thomas has his right arm in a sling as the result of a very bad sprain received Monday. Mr. Thomas was crossing the street behind a wagon loaded with lumber and there was one piece sticking out far beyond the other which he did not see. The pole struck him about the knees, throwing him to the ground, he falling with nearly all his weight on the arm that was injured.

Rev. J. T. Rushing, presiding elder of the Owensboro District, will be at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock and preach. The public is cordially invited to attend and hear him. The Quarterly Conference will be held on Monday morning at 8 o'clock at the Bank of Hartford. All the officials of the church are requested to be present and make a full report of their work. This includes stewards, trustees, Sunday School Superintendents and Epworth League presidents.

There will be a Civil Service examination held at Beaver Dam, Dec. 8, 1917, at which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth-class postmaster, Rosine. The compensation of the postmaster at the office was $217 for the last fiscal year. Application blanks and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at the place of vacancy or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Mr. M. L. Heavrin has received a card from the Rev. E. L. Miley, at Elizaville, Ky., stating that he and his wife went there to hold a meeting and that he and Mrs. Miley both were stricken with typhoid fever. Rev. Miley recovered in about 10 days, but Mrs. Miley is still ill, being her fifth week that she has been bed-ridden, and the day before he wrote the card was the first time she had been conscious for 12 days. Rev. Miley's father died while he was ill, and he could not go to the funeral. Rev. Miley made many friends while holding a revival here a few months ago who sympathize with him in his affliction.

AMERICAN CO-OPERATIVE POOL WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 15, 1917

Those desiring to pool their 1917 crop of tobacco will call on the following committee:

T. H. Balmann, Chm'n., Henry Pirtle, Shelby Rock, Pender Bennett, H. H. Hatler, John Allen, M. B. Barnett, W. J. Miller, C. M. Williams. Arrangements for pooling can also be made with S. L. King, manager of the Hartford branch.

Prospects for the sale of the 1917 pool are good, as we have several men who are waiting to buy it. Work has begun on our tobacco house, and it will be completed by December 1st.

Don't blame us if you do not get your tobacco in this pool, as it will certainly be closed on this date—Nov. 15, 1917.

All tobacco to be delivered at our warehouse in Hartford.

NOTICE

A meeting of the representative cattle feeders and breeders of Kentucky has been called by Commissioner of Agriculture, Mat S. Cohen, to convene at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Ky., Friday, Nov. 9, 1917, at two o'clock in order to discuss the importance and need of stimulating the cattle feeding and cattle breeding industries of the State, which industries at this time are at a lower ebb than at any time since the Civil War. Every cattle feeder and cattle breeder in the State is invited to be present at this meeting and express his views as to the best ways and means of meeting this emergency and stimulating these industries in order to augment the supply of beef and to better prepare for after-the-war demands, which will necessarily be made upon this country.

It is hoped that all who are interested in cattle feeding are breeding may be present at this important meeting.

German Sub on Exhibition in New York Is Aptly Called "U-Bought-a-Bond"

A German U-Boat which was brought to this country to aid in the sale of Liberty Bonds and is now in Central Park, New York, has been appropriately renamed "U-Bought-a-Bond," and has become one of the most popular exhibitions of the metropolis. The boat was brought to this country in three sections, and set up to show Americans just what the destructive undersea craft of Germany look like. A silent salesman for Liberty Bonds it proved a real boon to the campaign. The boat was formerly the UC-6, which was 110 feet long and weighs 70 tons. The boats

PRISON ISLAND NOW USES CONVICT LABOR ON ROADS

The Works Department here has been authorized by the State Board of Public Roads to employ convict labor on the roads. The board has provided that only men who can make satisfactory work can be employed on the roads, and that the use of convicts is only on State roads. The Board of Public Roads first sends a request for a certain number of convicts to work on designated roads to the prison authorities, who authorize to detail as many of these men for the purpose as they consider advisable. The additional cost of transportation, guarding and supervising the convicts as a result of their work on the roads and a reasonable charge for their services, must be paid to the board and charitable commission by the Board of Public Roads. The prison authorities are permitted to pay the families of the convicts, or end of their terms the whole or any part of the money received for such labor in excess of its cost. This law comes with the penal and charitable commission so much discretion as to using convict labor on roads that the results accomplished under the statute and he watches with much interest.

The State Board of Public Roads, which the Board and Charitable Commission to furnish two gangs of men, laboring 30 men for each gang, for work on State Highways and the Board's request was granted. The first gang was started July 10 on a small section of reconstruction by the bituminous penetration method. The prison authorities are paid a flat rate of $1.50 per day per man and they look after their guarding and maintenance. The work is progressing satisfactorily, the men are doing a fair day's work and the cost is a little lower than the contract price bid when this section was advertised last spring. The second gang of 31 men was started August 1 on resurfacing and reconstructing a section of State highway about one mile in length. The same price per day is paid to the prison commission for the labor of the men. This work is progressing in the same manner as the other section and is very encouraging to the Board.

HARD ON LAWYERS.
The dean of the law department was very busy and rather cross. The telephone rang.
"Well, what is it?" he snapped.
"Is that the city gas works?" said a woman's soft voice.
"No, madam," roared the dean, "this is the university law department."
"Ah," she answered in the sweetest of tones. "I didn't miss it so far, after all, did I?"
And the weary dean chuckled all afternoon.—Lippincott's.

A Kaiser's Grave, But—

But for the reversal in the name, this grave in the Cemetery at Pargny, in the Somme country, might be thought to be that of the Emperor of Germany. But the Kaiser is not buried here, in spite of the marked similarity in the designation on the headstone. Many people, no doubt, do not wish Kaiser Wilhelm well, and patriotic satisfaction may spring from a glance at this grave. But Wilhelm Kaiser is considerably different from Kaiser Wilhelm. This Kaiser is a grenadier of the Fifth Guards, and he died fighting against the German Emperor and oppressor of civilization.

To Keep From Losing Breath.
Where respiration is rhythmical there is no loss of breath in walking fast, running uphill or going upstairs. The method of preventing breathlessness consists in maintaining the rhythm and the speed of respiration. When the breathing is rhythmic the breathing keeps pace with the steps. The out-breathing must be twice the length of the in-breathing, and not more than sixteen or twenty complete breath circuits must be made per minute.

The Beautiful Gulf Coast

The beautiful thing about the Gulf Coast, between New Orleans and Pensacola, is that it is a real playground, summer or winter—a playground for northern folk from November to May, and for southerners during the summer months. You can't ask for much more of placid nature than has been expended on the gulf littoral between New Orleans and Pensacola. There are pine woods, forests of live oaks, al moss lung and mysterious, long stretches of winding, shaded roads, woodland paths, quaint southern hamlets and modern resorts teeming with gaiety and active life; lovely retreats where you can swing in a hammock all day and drowse in the narcotic air. And there is the sparkling water, the beach, the surf, boating, fishing—anything and everything that calls from the salt waterside.

Going South on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, after you leave Mobile, it is impossible to escape the infection of joyous living, even if you wanted to do that. At every stop throngs of people are going and coming—youth and age alike, getting on or off the trains. Laughter and breezy, sunny, fragrant air greet you. It is moreover a place of sane, natural outdoor joys in surroundings of homely comfort or of luxurious ease, whichever you prefer. It is a locality of ancient and honorable traditions and the natives are descended from holders of the soil since the first days of the white settler. They make you welcome with a stately, southern hospitality, and have put at your disposal the best their home land affords. Every resort and every old plantation home is shaded by age-old ancestral oaks and grown over with trailing vines, roses and perennials; and they all look out over the gulf waters, at the dancing waves, the scudding sails, the beach and the surf. If you can't find happiness down there in the golden sunshine and among the countless diversions and attractions of that playground, don't go South in the winter expecting to find your "Promised Land," for you'll have only your trouble for your pains. No choicer spot exists and greater comfort is not to be found. The winter climate is ideal, not uncomfortably warm, but moderate and bracing, putting snap and ginger into the system.

Touring along the Gulf Coast is one of the ways travelers take to find their own particular choice—and for this purpose the train service of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is convenient. You can stop everywhere, beginning at Mobile, and stay a few hours, a few days or as long as you wish. It is a fascinating vagabondage that will bring you eventually to the place of your ultimate desire. You can, also, if you choose, ship your motor car to Mobile and go in for regular touring along the gulf—the roads are all good and the country is fascinating in the extreme. History lends its background of fact to a long list of interesting tradition and romantic legends concerning this locality, and the "atmosphere," while wholly American, has the foreign flavor in sufficient degree to give it diversity and variety. Topographically, the coast lies low and curving, rising gently toward the hinterland, which is forested with pines, broken in the clearings, by rich and productive farmlands. The shore line is much indented, the numerous bays, "bayous," "sounds" and lakes give a seemingly endless and all-surrounding water-scape. Lying off the shore is a line of islands, forming the outer bulwark of Mississippi Sound, and fronting this are the resorts that have been famous since pre-revolutionary days—the towns which began as of the French colonies, begun under the brothers de Bienville and d'Iberville. Straight and sure—like an arrow that flies from the bow and imbeds itself in the bull's-eye—

So have the Maxwell builders fixed a price for their product—$745—which makes it possible for them to say:

"Below this figure there must be something lacking which we have put into the Maxwell—efficiency, durability, economy, comfort, beauty or standard equipment."

—and above this figure we could give you no greater practical utility—only larger size or richer and fancier furnishings."

This is the scientific fact—proved and demonstrated by one of the giants of the motor car industry in years of production on an immense scale.

And we stand firm on this finding of the Maxwell builders.

We believe the Maxwell to be the BEST MOTOR CAR INVESTMENT possible today.

The Beautiful Gulf Coast

GULFPORT, MISS.

Mississippi is a land of romance and interesting history, and she has furnished some famous men who have had spectacular careers. Mississippi was found by old world explorers to have a fine climate and many fascinations. Two centuries ago De Soto, Joliet, Marquette, Iberville, Bienville and LaSalle had a "vision" of the civilization of Mississippi of today. Mississippi has had one hundred years of statehood and she expects to celebrate her Centennial near Gulfport in 1919.

At Gulfport is a railway pier extending one mile into the Mississippi Sound. It gives dockage facilities to foreign vessels and makes the harbor a gateway to the interior of the State, and south to the Panama Canal region. Gulfport is thus famed, together with its land connections along the line of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad for its accessibility from and to all points north, south, east and west.

The city of Gulfport has attractive homes, fine churches and schools, and an aggressive wide-awake people. She has also about her fruit lands and garden spots for the settler from the north. She has in her Great Southern Hotel a fine up-to-date hostelry. Gulfport is on the beautiful Shell road also, that extends for miles along the edge of the Sound. It is a fine breeze one gets at most any day of the year, when aboard that electric line that runs along the very waters edge. The golf links, a few miles east of Gulfport are an attraction on this line; also the Military Academy and beautiful Beauvoir, that was once the home of Jefferson Davis, and which is now a harbor for the Confederate Veterans of the South.

If, while sojourning at Gulfport, you are weary of golfing or boating, why then in the moonlit nights or dark nights you can go searching for "flounders"—when the tide is out. It is a picturesque sight to see men and women, who live along the shore who often at night are thus engaged. By the aid of the light of their torches they enjoy this sport. No doubt many find it an economic pastime.

Gulfport is a coming city of some size! Strangers are cordially welcome either to visit for a time or to add their interest to that of many others who come for the attractions and well-being she offers to all who may wish to share them with her.—Carlyle Porter.

Gulfport is one of the attractive resorts located on the Beautiful Gulf Coast and reached by the superb steel passenger trains of the LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD.

OVER THE TOP

National Trophies

National trophies are national assets; they are witnesses of past valor and assurances of valor to come.

Who is it that does not regard Washington's sword with a thrill of reverence? Whose pulse is not quickened at sight of the pen that signed the Declaration of American Independence? And whose eyes have remained dry when they first beheld the venerable Liberty Bell?

Time hallows these things and gives them a touch of romance, invested and threaded with gold. The cabinet of the nation is crowded with such treasures, out of the past, and now another is to be added to the list—the brass shell of the first shot fired by America in this great war for world-freedom. Under the impulse of the gunner's hand the leaden missile took its hissing course across No Man's Land, straight at the heart of Prussian despotism. It was the war call of our country out in the arena for freedom. And the brass case that held the leaden messenger became from that moment a trophy to be treasured through the ages.

Suppose we had the first bullet that was fired at Lexington, would we not go down on our knees in an obeisance of reverence while visions of a victorious Liberty rose before us?

And in the years to come—far down the dim vista of the future, when the inextinguishable torch of freedom burns in the silver scenes of the nations and the chalice of the world is filled with the nectar of peace—in those days will not the descendants of the generations of today put a like homage to the first shell that proclaimed us co-champions with our allies in this titanic struggle against the degradation of despotism?

Already the shell has a vivid claim on our interest, a hold on our imaginations that will grow stronger and more binding with the flying years. It is a fit companion for all the splendid trophies that tell anew our national story to each rising generation.

The sending of that shell back to America is no light matter; rather does it take on the semblance of a national ceremony.—Commercial Appeal.

CONSISTENCY.

Civilized man sleeps away several hours of daylight every morning; hurries artificial light for a corresponding number of hours every evening, and then "kicks" about the gas or electric light bill, and opposes the daylight saving plan.

Also he thinks he could get along very nicely if he had just a little larger income, but judging from the life insurance he carries, he must think his wife and children can get along on a whole lot less when he is gone.

A scrub ram is expensive at any time, but doubly so at the present high price of wool and lands. A good ram has many times proved to be more than "half the flock." Many successful and progressive sheep breeders trace their start on the road to success to the purchase of a good ram. Sometimes the price of the ram has looked high but time proved it to be the cheapest and by far the best paying investment ever made.

Pass Along the SMOKES

YOU want-hearted people of Ohio county won't let the men who are fighting your fight go smoke-hungry.

Not a bit of it. You're going to see to it that they get all the tobacco they need—just as the folks back home in England and France are taking care of the smokes for Tommy and Poilu.

It isn't much to do—considering. A dollar or a quarter from you that gives a little comfort to one of your own flesh and blood, doesn't stack up to much alongside the fact that the very man you are befriending may have to give up his life.

But it's a regular thing to do—and you "regular" men and women will do it.

This is the way. Fill in that coupon below, put it in an envelope together with all you can afford to give—and drop it in the nearest box now, addressed to

HARTFORD HERALD Tobacco Fund

Our paper has joined the Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times in this most worthy undertaking.

Approved by Secretaries of War and Navy, the management of this fund buys its tobacco at cost—every contribution of twenty-five cents means forty-five to fifty cents' worth of tobacco for the man out there. No one profits but the fighting man—rents, postage, advertising are all contributed and the soldier who gets your tobacco will send you a postal telling how much it meant to him.

There's no argument here. Just put your name on that blank line and pass along the smokes.

Hartford Herald, Hartford, Ky.

Inclosed find $..... to buy packages of tobacco (pipe or cigarette tobacco or plug chewing) or cigarettes through the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund" or American fighting men in France.

I understand that each dollar buys four packages, each with a retail value of forty-five or fifty cents, and that in each of my packages will be placed a postcard, addressed to me, on which my unknown friend, the soldier, will agree to send me a message of thanks.

LOUISVILLE LIVE STOCK MARKET

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 6, 1917.

HOGS—Receipts 4,461 head. The market ruled steady on pigs, but a quarter lower on the balance. The best hogs, 165 pounds and up, $16.75; 120 to 165 pounds, $15.85; pigs, $14.25@15.25; roughs, $15.15 down.

CATTLE—Receipts 4,582 head. The supply was more than expected, reports all around unfavorable, and trade did not display any activity during the early rounds; in fact, it was a slow market. Best light butchers sold barely steady, others lower than a week ago. The canner and cutter trade was full 10c to 15c off. Best bulls sold steady, while common kinds ruled slow. Good grade feeders and stockers found a good outlet at unchanged prices, but medium and plain sort were dull and lower than last week. Trade in good heavy steers was slow; prime ripe kinds steady, but medium, in-between sort were dull and lower. Choice milch cows in good request. Prices ranged from $4.75 to $12.00.

CALVES—Receipts 335 head. The market ruled steady on best veals at 11@11½c; but medium and common kinds were extremely dull and hard to dispose of.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts 279 head. The market continues unchanged. Best lambs, $14.50@15; seconds, $10.00@11.00; culls, $7.50@8.50. Best sheep, $6.00@6.50; bucks, $6.50 down.
